

FORTY TWO CATEGORIES OF LOVE, GRACE AND CONTENTMENT, SOME OTHER SEVEN FOLD CATEGORIZATIONS, AND THE SEVEN SPIRITS OF GOD

God's Divine nature has seven aspects and His Holy Spirit divides into the Seven Spirits of God. The creation also inherits many sevenfold categorizations. The nature of these sevenfold aspects can be studied in various manifestations using the following tables. Each horizontal row in these tables should indicate some comparability to the same level in another subject column. The first table expands on the minimum requirements of precepts four to ten of the ten commandments - and so describes how we may mature and diversify in our fulfilling of the general requirement of God's law - to love our neighbour as ourself....

Our love may be ideal, well-pleasing or merely good.

It may be enduringly consistent or varying, temporary or incompatible.

The fullness or variety of the kinds of love we use ranges from immature to mature...

A fear lacks finished love (1Jn 4:18). Ideal love may fear. The just are as bold as a lion (Pr 21:1)....

1. Positive/Additive, 2. Negative/Subtractive

The greatest appreciation for happiness is that success is the greater because of the failures, the second greatest appreciation is the experience of pure success, and the third is appreciation for the temporary failures themselves....

SEVEN PRIME CATEGORIES OF GOD - FOR THE CHURCH AND THE CREATION — AS REVEALED IN THE SCRIPTURES

As the seven categories of God's sevenfold character determine how He creates, these seven categories of His love - revealed in the ten commandments are profound and categorize many assortments of things in the universe. Scripture has set out some things in sevenfold progression which reflect and point to the seven prime categories in God's loving nature and character...

The seven primary categories of God are reflected in the Lord's prayer. The seven days of the creation account (Gen 1-2:2) are ordered according to these seven categories, and this characteristic pattern is also repeated in the character and order of the seven festivals appointed for Old Covenant Israel (Lev 23). Here is a list that summarises these three sevenfold orderings in the bible.

- [The Passover] 'Our Father' - Heaven & earth, light on ocean
- [Unleavened Bread] 'Hallowed be your name' - Atmosphere between the waters
- [First Fruits] 'Your kingdom come' - Land and plants emerge

- [Leavened bread] 'Your will be done on earth as in heaven' - 'Cloud layer' thins, heavenly bodies show
- [Trumpets] 'Daily bread' - Waters teem with life, (amph.-dino.) birds
- [Day of Atonement] 'Forgive us as we forgive' - 'Mammals' and man

- [Tabernacles] 'Lead us not into trial & haul us from the evil one' - God's creative rest
